

Algerian Journal of Economics and Business studies

Algerian Journal of Economics and Business studies, founded in 2021, is peer-reviewed academic review published semi-annually by the faculty of economic and commercial sciences and management .

The editorial line of the review is based on the study of the institutional reforms importance and proposes policies to strengthen the institutions and governance principles and mechanisms, and developing the regulatory frameworks that support the investment opportunities, and rehabilitation of the developing economies for the challenges and implications of globalization.

The review is concerned with the publication of theoretical and applied researches and studies in the fields of economic, commercial sciences and management and publishing the critical studies of various modern Arabic and foreign publications. The review welcomes the researchers contributions in three languages: Arabic, English, French concerned with publishing the researches and studies in the field of economic and commercial sciences and management

Issued by

Farhet Abes university setif 1 – (Algeria)

Legal deposit N°: June 2021

Algerian Journal of Economics and Business studies is ranked among different data bases and the following sites:

