

Nation's philosophy at Mustafa Lashraf

Par :Dr. Moussa Maireche

Université Mentouri. Constantine.

Mustafa Lashraf in contemporary Algeria more than aware of the prominent media, it is in addition to being one of its leaders revolutionaries who travelled between currents national movement, as it was at one stage fighter in the Algerian People's Party, also joined in the movement after the victory of democratic freedoms. Once the revolution broke out in November until the first of their figures, but it was the five leaders who kidnapped the French authorities in the famous incident plane .

and came to independence has become political leaders and businessmen of its assuming many of the positions both ambassador to Algeria, as minister of one of the most visited, and do we mean by the Ministry of Education. However, the status of Ashraf strengthened as more addition to the above mentioned one of the ideologists behind Algeria rebel and independent alike. Paid political profile and Alnizalih one hand, and the scientific profile, on the other hand, have contributions Tnazirih major charters Algeria region both in the Tripoli or in the Charter of 1976, which led many of his views on many issues, especially his concept of the nature of the nation, which aroused a lot of controversy and debate about the look of Najaf and justified and sometimes the background, it is trying this study discussed and clarified. Ashraf thinker and a man of the state : Despite the important place of scientific, historical and political enjoyed by Mustafa Ashraf at all levels, but that he strayed unknown to many of the intellectuals as well as to students and the general sons of Algeria's generation who worked sh Ashraf preparing, and spent most of his life in him, as would many of the sons of Algeria others who give exile creed, "a flower of life, and Nsthm but Tnasthm and neglected, and the country is not wide and stretch to all ijui its sons who Ahboha and disliked. And here lies the importance of this definition rights and cultured man struggling with the man committed to the State. Who is Ashraf and what its intellectual and demonstrated his political.