Journal Scope:

The Academia Journal of Social and Human Studies (AJSHS) is an open access, peer-reviewed and refereed biannual international journal, founded in 2008, and published by Hassiba Ben Bouali University of Chlef. (AJSHS) encourages and publishes research papers in three languages (Arabic, English and French) in all fields of social sciences and humanities such as economics, law, arts, foreign languages, sports and so on. The Academia Journal of Social and Human Studies welcomes and acknowledges high-quality research manuscripts throughout the world. The extended editorial board includes qualified experts who are conversant in the pertinent subject area and are highly committed to the quick review process of the paper, but not with the sacrifice of the right judgment of a paper. All publishing processes including submission, selection and review must be made electronically via the Algerian platform for scientific journals ASJP.

The main objectives of (AJSHS) are the following:

- to provide an intellectual platform for scholars to impart and share knowledge in the field of social sciences and humanities.
- to publish high-quality original unpublished researches that are of international significance, yet material which has been previously copyrighted, published, or accepted for publication will not be considered for publication in the journal.
- to promote social and human studies and become a leading academic journal in the field.

In order for The Academia Journal of Social and Human Studies to increase its visibility,

The AJSHS site web was launched in 2008 with the aim of increasing the visibility and it is similarlys covered by the following indexing services:

- American databases EBSCO

- American databases PROAUEST

- El Manhal Electronic Library

- African Electronic Journal

- National Online Documentation System

Authors Guide

1- Submission:

Authors who wish to publish their original papers are advised to read and follow the Authors guide presented on The Academia Journal of Social and Human Studies page through the Algerian platform for scientific journals ASJP via the link:

www.asjp.cerist.dz/en/PresentationRevue/552

All manuscripts must be submitted electronically through the Algerian platform for scientific journals ASJP.

2- Preparation of Manuscript:

Authors are highly advised to download the template in the Authors Guidelines section to prepare their manuscript according to the Journal's specifications and ensure smooth submission process.

3- Authors Guidelines:

Author(s) should read and follow these instructions carefully. The editor in chief reserve the right to reject and return manuscripts that are not prepared in accordance with these instructions.

4- Review Process (the whole reviewing process must be made electronically via ASJP):

A full double-blind refereeing process is used. Every manuscript submitted for publication to (AJSHS) journal is initially assessed by the editor for suitability for the journal. Papers deemed suitable are then typically sent to two independent expert reviewers to assess the scientific quality of the manuscript.

The reviewing process includes the following steps:

- The omission of the author's personal information (name/ affiliation and home country) and making the manuscript anonymous.
- The Anonymous manuscript is sent to the editor assistant who will send it in turn to two reviewers, specialist in the field, yet the editor in chief can send the manuscript directly to the reviewers without passing by the editor assistant.
- The final decision on the manuscript is taken by the editor in the light of both reports. It is treated as follow:
- Accepted manuscript in both reports: the author in this case will receive a notification of final acceptance.
- -Accepted manuscript with reservations at least in one report: the author in this case will receive a notification of acceptance with recommended changes which should be made no later than one month.

The author is required to resubmit the revised version and the decision will be final either by accepting or rejecting the manuscript.

- Accepted manuscript by one reviewer and rejected by the second. The manuscript will be sent to a third reviewer whom opinion will determine whether the manuscript will be accepted or not. The decision is made according to what has been mentioned (only if the manuscript is rejected by the third reviewer, the author will receive notification of final rejection).
- Rejected manuscript by both reviewers: The author in this case will receive a notification of final rejection and will not permitted to submit again the same manuscript in the same format.

Upon acceptance of an article, authors will be asked to:

- Introduce the bibliographic references of the article according to the frame determined on the platform of the author's account. Otherwise accepted manuscripts couldn't be published.
- Send an acknowledgment of the right to transfer the copyrights according to the sample of the journal which can be downloaded from the the section authors guide on the platform (the journal page on the ASJP

5- Reviewing Time:

The editorial board is highly committed to the quick review process which takes maximum two months. If the deadline is exceeded, the article will be sent to new reviewers.

Ethics of publication

The academic journal of social and human studies of Hassiba Ben Bouali University, Chlef (Algeria) undertakes to publish the original scientific articles obeying the standards of writing governed by the same journal and to respect the highest standards in terms of ethics of publishing. The code of ethics is classified in the editorial board of the publication (COPE: Publication Ethics Committee), which is the main basis for authors, researchers and other influential figures in the publication of journal articles. The review aims to establish uniform standards of conduct. The journal ensures that all participants agree to the laws of the Code of Ethics, and is therefore committed to applying them in light of the acceptance of responsibilities and the fulfillment of the duties and responsibilities assigned to each party.

1- Responsibility of the publisher:

The editorial board of the academic journal of social and human studies is composed of qualified specialists in the field of scientific research. The editor and associate editors who indicate their affiliations and contact information on the ASJP platform can be contacted through the platform.

Publication decision:

Authors must respect the property rights of previous scientific works, in order to preserve the rights of others when publishing articles in the journal. The editor may consult the committee if the article is accepted or rejected.

Integrity:

The editor ensures that the content of each article submitted for publication is evaluated independently of the author's gender, origin, religious beliefs, citizenship or political affiliation, and each article is subject to proofreading by a qualified reviewer of the magazine.

confidentiality:

Information about the authors of the articles should be highly confidential and kept by all who can consult them, such as the publisher, members of the editorial board, any member involved in editing. On the rules of confidentiality and objectivity in the evaluation process for authors and reviewers.

Use of data:

Data presented in non-accepted articles must not be used without the express written consent of the author. It is strictly forbidden to use or benefit from the results of this research.

Conflict of interest:

Editorial board members and evaluators must recuse themselves in the event of a conflict of interest with one of the authors or with the content of the manuscript to be evaluated. No conflict of interest between the publishers and the author, whether as a result of a competitive or cooperative relationship or other relationships or links with an author, company or institution related to the research.

Unethical behavior:

The editor of the journal must be immediately informed of any type of immoral behavior discovered during the evaluation process before or after publication. Anyone presenting the evidence and sufficient detail must inform the publisher.

2- Role of the reviewer:

Contribution to the publication process:

The reviewer assists the editor in making his publication decision and helps the author improve the article and correct it.

Speed of service and respect of deadlines:

The reviewer must start and speed up the evaluation of the article sent to him within the deadlines (the process is done exclusively via the ASJP platform). If this is not possible after having carried out the preliminary study of the article, it must inform the editor that the subject of the article is outside the work of the auditor, Due to lack of time or adequate means of evaluation .

confidentiality:

All important information must be confidential to the reviewer. It must seek to preserve the confidentiality and can not disclose it or discuss its contents with the publisher, with the exception of the licensee.

Objectivity:

The reviewer must prove that he has examined and evaluated the research by providing objective arguments and justifications, and that he must not address any personal criticism to the author, nor appraise an article outside his area of specialization or specialty of the journal, nor use the information and data obtained by research for personal

References:

The reviewer should try to identify the sources and references to the subject, as well as the information obtained from other works, as indicated in their correct form, and inform the editor of any work similar or overlapping with the work submitted for evaluation

Conflict of interest:

The reviewer must not evaluate the articles for personal purposes, that is to say, he must not accept the expertise of articles by which the interests of persons or institutions can be established.

3- Responsibility of the author:

Drafting standards:

The author must provide an original research and presentation with precision and objectivity, in a scientifically consistent manner and in accordance with the article specifications in terms of language, form or content, in accordance with the editorial policy standards of the journal. It also correctly identify the data, by full references, and avoid showing immoral, personal, ethnic, sectarian, false or incorrect information.

Originality and hacking:

All authors who submit articles to the Academic Review of Social and Human Studies for publication certify that the works presented are original and have not been copied or imitated in whole or in part by other works. And the authors are obliged to ratify the copyright assignment document that can be downloaded from the ASJP platform review page.

The Journal of the Academy of Social and Human Studies retains the right to use piracy detection programs for works submitted for publication.

Publication of the same article in several journals:

The author can not submit the same work (article) to more than one journal, which is considered immoral and unacceptable behavior.

Data access and data retention:

The author must keep the private data used in his article and submit them at the request of the editorial committee or the expert.

Authors of the article:

The number of authors of the article must be limited and clearly defined in terms of design, implementation and interpretation. The author, being responsible for the article, plays a major role in the preparation and planning of the article. The other authors are also mentioned in the article. The author of the article must check the names and information of all authors, do not include other names for non-authors of the article, the authors must be familiar with the whole article and agree explicitly on the content and publish it in this format. The name of a person who has not contributed to the article can not be placed in the list of authors without actually contributing to the completion of the work submitted for publication.

Reference:

The author of the article is obliged to mention the references appropriately. The reference must include the reference to all books, publications, websites and searches of other persons in the list of references and references cited or mentioned in the text of the article.

Disclosure and Conflicts of Interest:

Authors must disclose any conflict of interest or other conflict that may affect the evaluation of published research. In case of inconsistency, the authors must immediately disclose it to the editor or publisher.

Error report:

If the author finds a serious mistake in his published work, he must inform the editor or publisher.
