Preface

There is no doubt that it is crucial to highlight the diverse and critical themes that the journal addresses for the purpose of understanding the nature of global security challenges and the impact on international relations and Human Security. Therefore the journal is established for the aims to contribute to analyze and the understanding of these challenges, addressing both traditional and non-traditional security issues. Additionally, the journal discusses the role of different actors in shaping global security dynamics, including states, non-state actors, and international organizations.

Security and strategic affairs play a crucial role in shaping the contemporary world. Therefore, it is essential for researchers and scholars to delve deeper into various thematic areas concerning international relations and security studies. This continuous innovations not only contributes to the expansion of scientific debate but also ensures a comprehensive understanding of the challenges and opportunities that define our global landscape. In this context, the aim of issuing this journal is to further explore and analyze the intricate interplay between security, strategy, and the diverse branches of knowledge that intersect with these domains.

Thus, In light of the diverse range of security and strategic topics, JSSA welcomes contributions from scholars and researchers from diverse academic backgrounds. It provides a platform for the exchange of ideas and the dissemination of knowledge regarding security & strategic studies. Through its interdisciplinary approach, the journal aims to foster a better understanding of global security challenges and promote innovative research in the field. Additionally, it encourages authors to explore new perspectives and engage in critical analysis of contemporary security issues.
